EVERY AMERICAN TO AID IN FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

"Must All Speak, Act and Serve Together," Declares President—Special Appeal to Farmers of South to Grow Food
Stuff as Well as Cotton.

SUPREME TEST OF THE NATION HAS COME."

Washington, April 15.—In a personal appeal addressed tonight to his fellow-countrymen, President Wilson calls upon every American citizen—man, woman and child—to join together to make the Nation a unit for the preservation of its ideals and for triumph of democracy in the world war.

"The supreme test of the Nation has come," says the address. "We must all speak, act and serve together."

"I particularly appeal to the farmers of the South to plant abundant foodstuffs as well as cotton. They can show their patriotism in no better or more convincing way than by resisting the great temptation of the present price of cotton and helping, helping upon a great scale, to feed the Nation and the peoples everywhere who are fighting for their liberties and for our own. The variety of their crops will be the visible measure of their comprehension of their national duty."

"Let me suggest also that every one who creates or cultivates a garden helps and helps greatly to solve the problem of the feeding of the nations; and that every housewife who practices strict economy puts herself in the ranks of those who serve the Nation. This is the time for America to correct her unpardonable fault of wastefulness and extravagance. Let every man and every woman assume the duty of careful, provident use and expenditure as a public duty, as a dictate of patriotism which no one can now expect ever to be excused or forgiven for ignoring."

SUPREME TEST HERE.

"In the hope that this statement of the needs of the Nation and of the world in this hour of supreme crisis may stimulate those to whom it comes and remind all who need reminder of the solemn duties of a time such as the world has never seen before, I beg that all editors and publishers everywhere will give as prominent publication, and as wide circulation as possible to this appeal. I venture to suggest, also, to all advertising agencies that they would perhaps render a very substantial and timely service to the country if they would give it widespread repetition. And I hope that clergymen will not think the theme of it an unworthy or inappropriate subject of comment and homily from the pulpits."

"The supreme test of the Nation has come. We must all speak, act and serve together."

LIVE AMERICAN EAGLE PURCHASED BY SOLDIER

Magnificent Specimen Shot Down By Farmer In Shelby.

Private Hall Goodwin, a member of Company F, First Regiment, Kentucky National Guard, upon returning to his home here Friday night on a leave of absence from military duty "somewhere in Kentucky," brought with him an immense American grey eagle, says Sunday's Courier-Journal, a bird of the type which has become universally known as symbolical of American liberty.

The bird stands about two feet in height, has a wing spread of six feet two and a half inches from top to tip, and according to Private Goodwin, has eyes as large as those of a man. No attempt has been made to weigh it because of its vicious nature.

Goodwin, who lives at 179 Coral Avenue, secured the bird from a Shelbyville merchant, who purchased it from a farmer residing near that place. The bird was captured after the farmer had brought it to earth with a shotgun, while the eagle was trying to carry off a large lamb. The only injury to the big bird was a slightly torn wing, which is now almost healed. It will be exhibited in a downtown store window some time next week, and later may be offered to the Zoo at Cincinnati.

He recently was adjudged a bankrupt and about the same time his oldest son was indicted for robbing a mail sack. Jacobs had been brooding about his troubles and his wife stated that he had frequently threatened to take his life.

SHERIFF KEOWN'S Proclamation To Foreign-Born Residents.

I, S. O. Keown, Sheriff of Ohio county, Kentucky, take this method of assuring all residents of foreign birth that they need not fear any invasion of personal property rights so long as they go peacefully about their business and conduct themselves in a law-abiding manner. The United States has never, in any war confiscated the property of any foreign resident unless by his own hostile acts he made it necessary.

So long as the laws of the Nation, State and county are obeyed foreign-born residents in this county will be protected in the ownership of their property and money and be free from personal molestation to the full extent of my authority as an executive officer.

All should refrain from public discussion of questions involved in the present crisis and maintain a considerate attitude to all others regardless of their nationality.

Every citizen owes undivided allegiance to the American flag and he is expected to loyally fulfill all obligations which citizenship and residence impose upon him. Any act, however slight, tending to give aid to the enemy is treason, for which severe penalties are provided in addition to the punishment which public opinion inflicts upon the memory of all traitors in all lands.

Done at Hartford, Ky., this April 17, 1917.

S. O. KEOWN, Sheriff.

EDITOR BECOMES CAPTAIN

Allison Barnett, Editor of Republican, to Be Captain of Company H.

A message was received in Hartford Monday to the effect that Editor Allison Barnett, of the Hartford Republican, will be commissioned Captain of Company H, Third Kentucky Infantry.

As soon as his commission arrives Capt. Barnett will be under orders of Col. Henry and will proceed to his command as soon as he receives the word.

Captain C. R. Shown, who was with Company H on the border, and who is at present with "our boys" somewhere in Kentucky" doing guard duty, has resigned for various reasons—one being that he is needed at home with his family, who live a short distance from Hartford on a farm.

Capt. Shown has made an enviable record while at the head of Company H, and while the "boys in the ranks" are loath to give him up, they are to be congratulated upon having a man, such as we know Allison Barnett to be, as their superior officer.

The commissioned officers of Company H are brothers, and we say, without fear of contradiction, that the Hartford company can boast of two as fine looking officers as one will find anywhere—Capt. Allison Barnett and Lieutenant Estlin Barnett.

FINE FARM SOLD

AT $105 PER ACRE

One of the most important land deals that has been made in this section for some time was consummated Monday, says the Springfield Sun, when E. S. Mayes and H. E. Litsey purchased the farm known as the L. A. Burns place, consisting of 230 acres, from Henry Whiteman, at $105 per acre. This farm is considered one of the best in the county and has all modern improvements, making it a very desirable place. Messrs. Mayes and Litsey are to be congratulated on their good fortune in purchasing this farm and their many friends wish for them splendid success in their future. Possession will be given at once.

GOOD ROADS WORK BEGUN.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 13.—The Montgomery Fiscal Court has appropriated $25,000 for building and reconstructing turnpikes in this county, and the work has begun. Two new roads are contemplated. The court let the rock contracts and also passed the tax apportionment making the poll tax $1.50; 60 cents for county purposes on the $100; and also fixed a tax levy of 20 cents on the $100 for school purposes in order to raise the sum of $12,900 which, it is estimated, is needed for the school work in Montgomery county during the present year.

SENDS HOG TO MISSISSIPPI.

Henry Freeman, the Durac hog raiser, who lives two miles southeast of here, shipped a nice bred gilt last week to Mr. J. J. Lum, in Warren county, Miss., for which he received a fancy price. Mr. Freeman is now shipping quite a number of hogs to other States and other counties.—[Cadiz Record.]

A twelve-year-old son of Adam Clark attempted to cross Lick Creek on horse back says the Bardstown Standard, during the passage the animal stumbled and fell, from some cause or other it was unable to recover its footing and was drowned. The boy escaped without injury.

JAKE ROWE'S REASON FINALLY DETHRONED

Drink Downfall of Brilliant Lawyer—Taken to Cincinnati For Treatment.

"In the circuit court room of the Daviess county court house, where a dozen or more years ago, the prosecutions of J. Edwin Rowe, then Commonwealth's Attorney for the Sixth Judicial District, gained him State-wide fame, he was tried Friday afternoon on a lunacy writ and declared by a jury to be of unsound mind," says the Owensboro Messenger, "and ordered confined in the Western Hospital at Hopkinsville.

"It was only the shell of the once brilliant man who conducted his own case before the jury yesterday afternoon. The hearing was one of the most dramatic ever held in the court room.

"Attorneys present remembered the celebrated speech made in a murder trial by Mr. Rowe when he was Commonwealth's Attorney. The courtroom at the trial was packed and jammed with people. The defendant was represented by the most prominent attorneys at the Owensboro bar.

Defendant Begged For Mercy.

"During Mr. Rowe's closing speech for the Commonwealth, and an appeal for a conviction, the defendant sprang from his chair and fell on his knees before the prosecutor and begged for mercy, while the crowd in the courtroom broke into applause. The jury found the man guilty. The speech is often referred to by attorneys as being one of the greatest ever delivered in Kentucky.

Drink His Downfall.

"Mr. Rowe served as Commonwealth's Attorney for twelve years. During the close of his second term his effectiveness was impaired by the use of strong drink. The habit grew on him until it left him a mental and physical wreck. When whisky no longer satisfied him he became a drug addict, which only hastened his complete downfall.

"For the past two weeks Mr. Rowe has been in Owensboro. It was only the first of the week that he made a motion in Circuit Court that the Stars and Stripes be hung in the courtroom, and the picture of the late Judge Stuart draped with the flag.

Placed Under Arrest.

"The luncy proceeding Friday followed the arrest of Mr. Rowe earlier in the day on a charge of annoying guests of the Rudd House. Patrolman Hart took the man in custody and later before the Circuit Court. The inquest jury was impaneled and verdict rendered shortly afterward.

"The verdict was rendered upon the expert testimony given by Drs. A. McKenney and Nelson, who stated in their opinion Mr. Rowe was unbalanced mentally. Other witnesses gave similar testimony leading to the conclusion the accused was of unsound mind.

"The verdict of lunacy was returned by an inquest jury composed of Robert Dugan, James H. Cottrell, John E. Daniel, Albert Bellew, J. E. Walters and Ivo Grant.

"The last motion made by Mr. Rowe in the Daviess Circuit Court—a motion that the jury that declared him insane be polled—was denied. He was led away by the jailer, and later, in custody of Deputy Sheriff Paul Wathen, started on his journey to Hopkinsville."

Later—Yesterday's Messenger says:

Mr. J. Edwin Rowe, accompanied by his son-in-law, Mr. Newton H. Fields, and daughter, Mrs. Frederick Botts, of Jacksonville, Fla., left for Cincinnati yesterday. Mr. Rowe is going for medical treatment according to the advice of their family physician, Dr. J. C. Hoover.

POWER OF THE PRESS.

A few weeks ago William Cary Whittaker McDaniel placed a notice in the Hartford papers with a view of finding his mother and other relatives. Saturday the boy met by appointment his uncle, Albert Taylor, in Hartford, and the two proceeded to the Clear Run community where Mr. Taylor lives.

The boy is a son of W. Whittaker, who was killed by a street car in Owensboro several years ago. The boy then very small was placed in the Louisville Baptist Orphan Home. In 1911 he was adopted by Mr. R. L. McDaniel, a substantial and prominent citizen of Benton, Marshall county, Ky., who authorized the advertisement that the relatives might be found.

Correspondence followed the notice resulting in the meeting Saturday.

Young McDaniel is a bright boy and by his appearance, manners and deportment clearly reflected evidence of good treatment, schooling and proper training. On the lapel of his coat was a merit button from his Sunday School.

The young man was about twenty-five years of age, and had been living away from home for perhaps two years.—[Cincinnati Record.]

FARMERS TO RAISE LARGE ACREAGE IN ALL CROPS

Truck Gardeners and Live Stock
Raisers Urged to Special Efforts.

Agricultural Ky.—Suggestions for the increase and conservation of farm products were unanimously adopted at a large and representative meeting of farmers, bankers, professional and business men from the counties of the First Congressional district held at the county court house. Dr. Fred Mutchler, of Lexington, director of agricultural extension service, delivered an impressive address, filled with advice. He urged the truck gardeners to confine themselves to their products and not try to do general farming.

Farmers with large savings were told to do general farming on as large a scale as they could. All were informed that all the crops they could raise would be in demand. Those who raise live stock, especially hogs and sheep, were told to let their stock mature. They were told not to put pigs on the market. Besides raising products for the markets the farmers were informed they also must raise all the products necessary to themselves.

Dr. Mutchler said the State and Government officials wanted every farmer to grow everything possible for the people of the United States and also for the allies of the United States in the war against Germany. He said the farmers of this district should not direct their main energies to tobacco, but that it was their patriotic duty to raise the necessities of life.

LOUISVILLE DEATH RATE HIGH FIRST THREE MONTHS

Measles Alone Has Caused Forty-four Fatalities Since First Of The Year.

The death rate in Louisville during the last three months has been unusually high, the number of deaths exceeding that of births by 221, says the Louisville Times. Not less than 1,246 persons died during January, February and March, and only 1,025 infants were born. Measles caused the deaths of twenty-three persons during March, and since January 1 forty-four persons have succumbed to that disease. Though there were a good many more cases of measles in the first month of the year only seven deaths occurred then.

There were 421 deaths in March, including twenty-one still births. Only 356 infants were born during that time. Tuberculosis caused the death of forty-four persons, sixty-three died of pneumonia, sixty-seven of heart disease and forty-two of kidney disease.

Eight persons were victims of accidents. There were four homicides and as many suicides.

Egg-LAYING CYCLE OF WONDER PULLET ENDS

Louisville, Ky.—Lady Walnut had the wonder pullet, failed to produce her ninety-fifth consecutive egg and the remarkable egg laying cycle, which twelve days ago broke the world's record, was brought to an end. The previous record of eighty-two eggs was held by a pullet entered in a Missouri egg-laying contest.

Lady Walnut III, the property of Dr. Lindsay Ireland, of Louisville, was entered as pullet No. 707 in the "Golden Egg-laying contest at the experiment station here. Since last November, when the contest started, she has laid 142 eggs. After a short rest, she is expected to begin laying again and go after world's honors for the year's record, now held by Lady Eglantine, a New Jersey pullet, with 311 eggs.

The Louisville-owned hen needs only 146 more eggs to tie this record and can rest twenty-eight days in the next six months, and tie the record. The pullet is 1 year old. Permission has been granted by her owner, Dr. Ireland, to a moving picture concern to make animated pictures of her.

Prof. James Dryden, Oregon poultry expert, has written a congratulatory letter to the officials of the contest, stating that the longest record in that part of the country was seventy-eight eggs.

OVY BROWN'S SENTENCE SUSPENDED BY COURT

Evansville, Ind.—Ovy Brown, of Marion, Ky., aged 28 years, who recently abandoned his 6-weeks-old child on the doorstep of Judge W. J. Robinson in this city, entered a plea of guilty when arraigned before Judge Duncan C. Givens, of the Circuit Court. He said that owing to the high cost of living he was unable to properly care for his child. The court sentenced him to the State prison for a term of from one to seven years, but upon the plea of Lane B. Osborn, prosecuting attorney, sentence was suspended in order that Brown might be given another chance.

FORTUNE IN JEWELS TAKEN

Theft Secured $10,000 Booty From California Home.

Pasadena, Cal.—Jewels worth $10,000 were taken from the Orange Grove Avenue home of William Wrigley, Jr., early the other morning from a bag hanging in the room adjoining the sleeping porch where Mr. Wrigley and his wife slept.

The robber entered the house through a second story bathroom window and obtained the case in which the jewels were reposing, in a bag in the closet.

Carefully extracting the case the robber replaced the bag, and entering another room took $350 in money and escaped.

It had been Mrs. Wrigley's custom to take the jewels with her to the sleeping porch every night, but for the first time in weeks she forgot to do so.

Mr. Wrigley has just returned from a trip to Chicago. He says he has only a partial description of the jewels and had telephoned Chicago for a technical description. The value of the jewels taken has only been estimated by him. It may run much larger.

Among them were a diamond cross in platinum setting, with five five-carat diamonds in the center; an emerald ring in platinum setting, a yellow diamond ring, a Golconda diamond ring, a large square diamond ring with setting surrounded by sapphires, a sapphire and diamond ring, a marquise ring with pink diamond in onyx setting, diamond bracelet oblong in shape, and containing many small diamonds; a platinum bracelet watch, set with small diamond mounted in blue enamel; a diamond bar pin, also in diamond and sapphire bar pin, a gold mesh bag with initial in diamonds, and pearl opera glasses.

WASHINGTON "DRY"

The white flag of prohibition no longer flies over the nation's capital, just under the Stars and Stripes. By a vote of more than two to one in the Senate and nearly two to one in the House the District of Columbia has been made dry. At the same time Congress has prohibited the shipment of liquor into dry States and has prohibited the use of the mails for the advertisement of liquor in dry States.

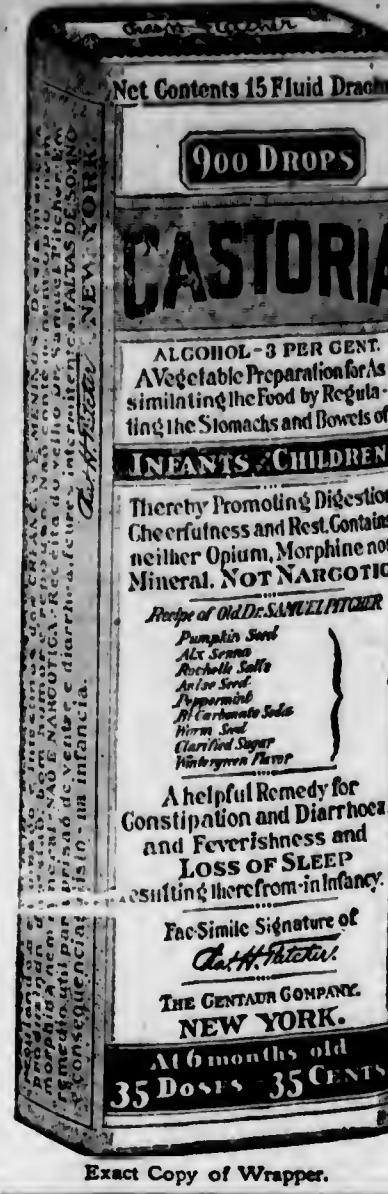

The saloon is thus made an outlaw—a fugitive from justice. It may hide for a while in a few wet States, but its days are numbered—the hour of its departure is at hand.

The next Congress is quite sure to submit a prohibition amendment and it will secure the necessary three-fourths of the States. And REMEMBER that a DEMOCRATIC President signed the first prohibition measure ever passed by Congress and do not forget that a DEMOCRATIC Senate and a DEMOCRATIC House sent the prohibition bill to the White House. Who will dare to call the Democratic party a whisky party now?—F. W. J. Bryan in Comptroller.

A Few Figures in Ohio County Cattle Feeding

Below you will find some interesting figures of a few of our feeders during the past winter.

Mr. B. W. Rial fed 14 head that made him an average daily gain of 2.22 pounds, making him a net profit on the 14 head of $265.00, besides his hogs and manure including the hogs and manure of total profit of $504.17 for his winter's feeding.

Mr. Watt Taylor, of Matanzas, fed 6 head, making a daily gain of 2.69 pounds, making him a profit on the 6 head of cattle with 5 hogs he fed with them of $175.37 without the manure of which there will be a profit of at least $35.00, making him $210.00 profits.

Mr. James Caldwell fed 15 head that made him a daily gain of 2.05 pounds, making a net profit of $280.96 and with his hogs that were fed with them and the manure added, gives him a total profit of

Mr. Rowan Holbrook fed 22 head making a daily gain of 2.75 pounds, but has not gotten his profits figured out.

Mr. Nnt Lindley fed 16 head and made an average daily gain 2.14 pounds, and did not get his profits figured out.

Mr. Tom Black fed 28 head and made an average daily gain of 2.21 pounds, and did not have his profits figured out at time of going to press.

These cattle were all fed n balanced ration and all made splendid gains, and especially so when you take into consideration the severe winter they had to feed in. It is good feeding to make an average daily gain of 2 pounds, but all of these beat this and made money this year. Their feed consisted of corn, pea and soy bean hay, timothy hay, silage and cotton seed meal.

"A friend of mine who is as good a man in his line as anybody in the United States stood in my office a few days ago and said a surprising thing. I had been complimenting him on one of his latest achievements. His face lighted up as he remarked: 'Of course I got a lot of money for that job, but between you and me I'd do these things for nothing if I couldn't get anybody to pay me for them. I'd rather do them than eat. It's a shame to take the money. Don't give me away, or they'll be asking me to cut down my price and I'll be doing it.'

"That sounds like bunk. But wait a minute. Think clear through the proposition. This man will never be cutting down his price at all. It is exactly the other way around with him—and he knows it. The truth is that his income goes on rising—because those he works for keep bidding up for his services. What he meant was that he has found the secret of progress and enjoyment—namely, a field of activity to which he is suited and in which he is so interested and happy that he works as if he were playing. No wonder he performs miracles! Naturally he is glad to have the large sums of money he earns. They are a sort of crude measurement of his efficiency. They show in a rough way how other people estimate his value. But the main point is that he has found his niche and that he concentrates on his job for days and weeks at a stretch. All his thought is concerned with what he can put into his work—not what he can get out of it. Lucky man!

"Evidently the same thing is true of James A. Farrell. Farrell devours facts about the steel business as greedily as a small boy swallows ice cream. The chances are that he has got into the one place on earth which he can fill the best—the presidency of the Steel Corporation. It is a safe bet that he would rather do that job for nothing than be without it. And of course it follows that he is worth more to the Steel Corporation than he would be if he were less absorbed in what he is doing.

"I wish I had the prescription to hand out that would turn every man into some kind and degree of a Farrell. But of course I haven't. There is only one thought I can suggest—and it is as old as the world. The idea is simply this: don't fake for years and years an interest in something that bores you. Don't pretend all your life, for the sake of fancied appearances, to enjoy some form of work that you really dislike. Of course you should give yourself a fair trial at a job before throwing it up, because often a man learns to like something that he didn't like when he set out. But you know what I mean—don't keep at it indefinitely. Quit and try something else. Cut and run before it is too late."

"The acid test to apply to your job is this: if you had money enough to live on, would you stay at it without pay? If you don't love it that much, hunt for another—that is, if you are young and free from the responsibilities and obligations which govern older men. The greatest successes of the world are 'crazy' about their work. Look at Edison. Look at Paderewski. How those men enjoy their jobs! Can anybody imagine that they love money more than work? And yet each—because of his jealous devotion to his work—has been richly paid in money. Both men are great artists. They have found what they wanted to do and stuck to it. Treat yourself more as if you were an artist. To a certain extent you probably are—in some line—if you will avoid shams and give yourself fully to your job."

A SOLDIER'S DREAM

In the moon's soft silver light dear, sleeping soundly on my bed, I had a dream of you dear heart, but far too soon my vision fled. I dreamed that war had been declared, and I heard the call to arms, and very soon we were on our way to the thick and noise of battle to face the bullets of the fray. I remember I was crying as I said my last goodbyes, and when I kissed my dear old mother and friends at home there were tear drops in their eyes. We were crowded on a transport in a cold and stormy rain, and as I watched the fading shore, my heart was wrung with bitter pain. Soon we landed in their country, on a strange and foreign shore, and no one knew that we would ever see our native country shore. Soon we fell to digging trenches—tired, hungry, sick and sore, and all the evening in the distance, we heard the booming cannons roar. Night soon fell and folded around us thick—the battle smoke was around us and in my heart I prayed so fervent for the girl I left behind me. Day soon dawned and camp was broken, and as we marched across the plain, volleys from the foemen fell upon us like showers of rain. I thought of the words my dear old mother said to me, but her words I didn't heed—I went and ran away. No one can never tell how the bullets swept and plunged our line.

CURIOS PAVEMENTS.

Tombstones are not infrequently employed in different parts of England for paving purposes. Some four or five years ago the inhabitants of Belvoir bitterly protested against the use of such material in the construction of a road leading to the parish church, despite the assurances of the local authorities that with the liberal supply of old and broken gravestones at their disposal the plan had been adopted with a view to saving the taxpayers quite a sum.

In Lyons, France, the celebrated Rue de la Republique is paved with glass blocks eight inches square, which have been so precisely fitted together as to make them absolutely water tight. Compressed grass, it is claimed, has been used in the construction of pavements in German towns and with admirable results, and in Russia compressed paper has been utilized for a similar purpose.

Many interesting instances of individual eccentricity or extravagance in the selection of material for paving may be cited. It is related that when Maximilian Emanuel succeeded to the throne of Bavaria he celebrated the event by causing one of the roads leading to his palace to be paved with plates of burnished copper. This, glistening in the sunshine, gave all the effect of gold.

Louis XIV., it is said, paved one of the courts at Versailles with squares of silver, each of which had recorded upon it some triumph of the French arms. In the center of the court stood a large tablet of gold in representation of the luxurious monarch's favorite emblem, the sun. Memoirs of the time of Louis make mention of a lodge erected in honor of Louise de la Valliere. The approach was paved with mirrors, whereupon was painted an allegory setting forth the undying devotion of Louis.

An eccentric nobleman of Milan conceived the idea of paving the courtyard of his palace with slabs

ONLY OLD CAN PLAY CARDS

Youth Forbidden to Indulge In Division In St. Louis Saloons.

St. Louis, Mo.—Commissioner Edward S. Lewis issued a second set of instructions for the conduct of saloons following his recent pronouncement of eight commandments. The most striking of the new rules provides that only "old men" may play cards in saloons. No card playing will be permitted in barrooms proper, but will be allowed in adjoining rooms. No young men, however, will be allowed to play.

When asked what would be the age limit, the commissioner remarked that a "policeman or a bartender will know what is an old man." The special permission granted the aged is intended to provide diversion for men who are too old and infirm to indulge in athletics; young men are invited to gymnasiums for exercise.

The old, however, will not be permitted to play for money, drinks or any other stakes, under the latest ruling of Lewis. They may be served drinks, however, at the card tables.

He announced that all excise laws will be more rigidly enforced than they have been in the past, especially laws closing saloons on Sundays and election days.

Beaver Dam.—Dear Editor:—Enclosed you will find one dollar for the renewal of the Hartford Herald for the year.

GREAT SERMONS

Being Preached by Evangelist

Miley At the Christian Church.

The series of evangelistic meetings which were begun at the Christian church Sunday, April 8, are still in progress.

Good crowds have been in attendance, but from the standpoint of additions to the church, the meeting has not been so successful.

Rev. E. L. Miley, the evangelist, is preaching some of the most able sermons heard in these parts in many a day, and no one who has heard the able divine has anything for him but words of praise for the manner in which he handles his subjects, and he impresses everyone as being absolutely sincere in everything that he preaches.

Mr. R. Paul Arnold, the singer, is rendering some excellent solos, and in a way of making people sing whether they want to or not.

The revival will close next Sunday night.

EDWARD NELSON, Mgr.

SAFETY.

For nearly three years I have done my best to warn you to prepare for the present emergency. For years we have tried to encourage diversification in the South as a basis for greater safety, both agricultural and economic. Since the war began in Europe we have urged SAFE FARMING. When prices were low you did well and made great progress. When cotton went to eighteen cents and over you made large profits because of your progress in SAFE FARMING, but some were tempted to go back to cotton. In common with many other men, I have tried to warn you of that danger. Cotton has not been high but has only increased in somewhat less proportion than food and feed.

NOW THE CRISIS IS HERE! This great Nation must arouse herself for a mighty struggle for liberty. People without food and armies without rations are conquered before they can begin to fight. Our greatest safety now lies in FOOD PRODUCTION and in saving the waste products.

If the South is to be STRONG she must have FOOD. If this country is to be STRONG she must be well fed and have an abundance to sustain those friendly people who are even now fighting our battles for liberty and democracy.

Transportation may be distributed. Your defense requires you to PRODUCE and CONSERVE your FOOD sunny, DON'T FAIL NOW! It is a National problem of defense as important as men and guns, ships and cannon.

BUSINESS MEN, if seed is short canvass the situation like patriots and get the seed for farmers. Arrange the credits. Furnish farmers seed corn, soy beans, cowpeas, velvet beans, peanuts, sorghum, etc., at cost. See that all things necessary to help farmers are done. Of course we must produce cotton, but with a moderate acreage and good season there will be enough. Do not sacrifice acres of FOOD to increase your acreage in cotton. LOOK AHEAD! Get the warehouses, the feed mills, shippers, cleaning stations, creameries, packing plants, etc., ready. You must do your share and co-operate with farmers. They must do their share and tend the crops faithfully.

FARMERS. In your unions, clubs and other organizations, resolve to USE THE BEST METHODS now. When the Nation faces a crisis we must have the best farming in its history. Labor is short, hence the best tools and all labor-saving devices must be used to make it possible for every farm laborer to cover as much ground as possible and do the most efficient work. Farm women and girls have important work to do in the garden, the orchard, in raising poultry, and especially in canning, preserving and conserving food supply.

Your county Agent and Home Demonstration Agent become more important officers now than ever before. Your State Extension Division at the Agricultural College will have still more important duties. Look to these for counsel and advice in this new burden of extra work. The County Agent will, without doubt, have new duties and responsibilities in the near future.

FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN, save the breeding stock. Don't sell cows, heifers, mares, sows, gilts, ewes and hens. Keep them for breeding. If the breeding stock is sold where will you get the means to supply the meat of this country? LET US FORGET ALL PAST DIFFICULTIES AND JOIN IN A MIGHTY EFFORT TO FEED THE SOUTH. WHAT CAN YOU DO IN THE NEXT SIXTY DAYS?

Respectfully yours,
BRADFORD KNAPP, Chief.

HOME GARDEN MOVEMENT IS VITAL ISSUE OF DAY

Washington, D. C.—That the planting of food gardens throughout the country is as being urged by the co-operation of the National Emergency Food Garden Commission of Washington, is one of the most important preparedness measures now before the public was voiced by Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, when he wrote the following letter to the commission:

"This seems to me to be a real contribution to the strength of the nation, and, incidentally teachers a valuable lesson of thrift and of value of the soil, which it will be very good for our people to learn in these times of stress and to practice in times of peace."

This message was sent to Charles Lethbridge Pack, who is in Cleveland here a city-wide campaign for food gardens is being conducted.

If you had no intention of doing one thing forbidden, "This Means You" reads like an insult.

TWO ARRESTS MADE

In Connection With Efforts To Cause Trouble Among Negroes.

Birmingham, Ala., April 6.—With the arrest of a white man and a negro here late yesterday federal agents who have the two men in custody have announced they have evidence of a movement by German agents to incite negroes in the South.

These agents, the federal authorities say, have worked particularly in Alabama, Louisiana, Georgia, the Carolinas and Mississippi. Posing as Bible salesmen and ministers of the gospel, federal agents declare they have urged the negroes to migrate to Mexico, telling them that special trains would carry them there April 15.

A negro arrested by federal authorities yesterday at the Birmingham railway station is accused of having made speeches to fellow members of his race, in which he urged them to denounce this government and turn their efforts in behalf of Germany.

FIRST IN "PEN" FOR "BOOTLEGGING"

Matt Duke Sent From Caldwell County.

News comes to us that Matt Duke, the bootlegger sent to the penitentiary for one year and six months from the Princeton Circuit Court, arrived "safe and sound" at Eddyville last week. This is the first conviction under the 1916 law making it a felony for a second conviction under the local option law. If the juries will just keep up this pace, the bootlegging and blind-tigering will be as scarce as the non-existing "hen teeth." We have some prospects of getting one or two men in Trigg under this law. We appeal to the juries, "Let no guilty man escape!" [Caldiz Record.]

POSTPONEMENT OF REUNION PROPOSED

Memphis, Tenn.—A movement to have the Confederate Veterans' reunion in Washington during June, postponed for another year, has started in Memphis. Col. R. P. Lake, on the general staff of commanding officers, said he did not believe the reunion ought to be held because the railroads are likely to be taxed to carry war supplies, and again because attendance will be small on account of the present war crisis.

BELIEVED CAUSE OF DEATH

Robert E. Fox, Uncle Of Kentucky Novelist, Takes His Own Life.

Winchester, Ky.—Loneliness following the death of an only sister last June, is believed to have caused Robert E. Fox to shoot himself in the forehead with a pistol.

He was a bachelor, 62 years old, and an uncle of John Fox, Jr., the writer. He left an estate valued at about $10,000, and had mailed a check for $200 to a local undertaker to cover his funeral expenses.

Among the world's greatest misfits are the big opinions of a small man.

YOUNG MAN DROWNS

Eludes Guard and Jumps Into the River From Newport Bridge.

Newport, Ky.—Climbing to the top railing of the foot path over the L. & N. bridge, a well dressed young man leaped into the Ohio river and drowned. He did not even remove his derby hat when he jumped.

Private Harry Collins, J Company, Third Infantry, O. N. G., was on guard near the railroad tracks when the man began to climb up on the rail. Collins shouted to him and started in his direction, but could not get to him in time to restrain him.

The man wore dark clothing, and Private Collins said he appeared to only be about 22 years old.

FIFTY COWS SOLD.

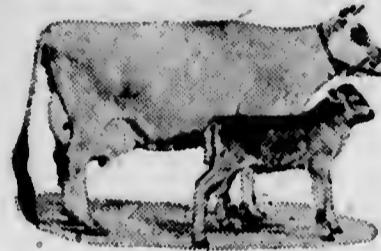

DAIRY AND CREAMERY

COW AT CALVING TIME.

Food and Care Needed to Obtain Best Results at This Period.

There is no time in the whole milking period that has such an important bearing on the establishment of a standard for production for the year as the period previous to and following calving time, writes F. C. White, Connecticut Agricultural College. It is understood by many, but not by all, that if a cow is allowed from six weeks to two months in which to rest from one lactation period to the next she will yield more than when milked continuously up to the time of parturition.

Rather liberal feeding, which actually builds mild nutrients on the body during the last few weeks of the lacta-

A $25,000 son is the latest offering that this Jersey cow, Sophie XIX, of Hood Farms, the world's champion long distance butter cow, has made to the dairy world. Sophie, for whom her owner, C. I. Hood of Lowell, Mass., refused $50,000, recently sold for a bull calf. Mr. Hood refused an offer of $4,000 for the calf. Sophie is a record of over two and three-quarter tons of butter in six years. The illustration shows Sophie and her son.

tion period and while the cow is dry is the secret of preparing the cow for the succeeding lactation period. This may appear to be wasting feed, but this is the important period when it is most valuable. During the last few weeks of the milking period grain may be fed at the rate of one pound to each two pounds of milk produced, reducing at the period when the cow is to be dried. When dry, about eight pounds of grain should be fed daily—more if the cow is in poor condition. It would not be profitable to feed inferior cows this way. The grain ration should be bulky, laxative and nutritious, having slightly more carbohydrates than a milk ration, with a nutritive ratio of about one of protein to seven of carbohydrate and fat equivalent.

During this period protein and fatty tissues are actually being stored upon the body to be used in the production of milk before the cow is in shape to digest and assimilate a full ration. It is just as serious to crowd the appetite during the first month after calving as to neglect to lay on this supply of nutrients. The cow should be kept hungry.

A week before calving reduce the grain to four or five pounds, feeding mostly bran and oats. On the day of calving a pound and a half of epsom salt, lukewarm water and good hay are enough for a well conditioned cow, although two quarts of bran mash may be useful. Begin the next day feeding lightly, and after four or five days introduce a grain mixture gradually. Increase this gradually about one-fourth pound per day. Do not expect a cow to handle all the feed called for by her yield of milk. If she has been properly conditioned and is coming to a good flow from one month to six weeks is early enough to get her on full feed. For three to six months she should gradually lose the flesh stored up.

Winter Dairy Feeds.

E. B. Heaton, adviser for DuPage county, Ill., suggests the following grain mixtures for the dairymen's use this winter: To be fed with corn silage and alfalfa hay: Grain mixture, 1,000 pounds corn meal, 300 pounds cottonseed meal. To be fed with corn silage and clover or mixed timothy and clover hay: Grain mixture, 300 pounds cornmeal, 500 pounds dried brewers' grains, 200 pounds cottonseed meal. Feed a pound of grain mixture for each three to four pounds of milk.

Dairy Byproduct.

A dairy cow weighing a thousand pounds yields about twelve tons of solid and liquid manure in a year, worth, on the basis of the elements of fertility contained, about $30. The liquid manure is worth 60 per cent of the whole and is usually a total loss.

DAIRY NOTES.

Don't neglect to have the box stalls ready for the cows that are to calve in the early spring. If cream is held too long it will become bitter and hard to churn. No herd of cows can do well unless the supply of water is abundant and clean. If the herd can be watered in the stable and help themselves so much the better. Give the heifers that are to calve in the spring very special care. They should have exercise, but not where they can be knocked around by the older cows. Sometimes a cow is uneasy, stops or moves or even kicks when being milked. See if there are stray hairs on theudder that are being pulled. Remove them by the use of shears.

HOTEL HAS SOCIAL CENSOR
Bars the "Davenport Chameleons" and "Lounge Lizards."

New York.—Copeland Townsend, proprietor of the Majestic Hotel, has added a social censor to his staff. William Pitt Rivers is the censor, and if any "lounge lizards" or "davenport chameleons" venture into the Majestic they are doomed to extermination. It is Mr. Townsend's expressed wish that such parasites find no refuge in his hotel, and for that reason the censor has been employed. After the expose of "lounge lizards" in other hotels, the management came to the conclusion that a censor was needed.

Every night at the Majestic the social censor will be on duty. He will scan dancers with an appraising eye. When he sees a "tango pirate" he will quietly tell the pirate to keep off the dancing floor.

HOURS OF LABOR.

Hard Work With No Time Limitations the Road to Success.

It seems to be established on purely physiological grounds that eight hours of hard work each day is about all the average person's system will stand and maintain its normal efficiency. This conclusion has been reached after exhaustive and protracted scientific investigation without any regard whatsoever for legislative aspects and based upon the measurements of nervous and muscular exhaustion produced by work.

This eight hour limitation rule, it should be remembered, applies to the average person. But apparently no person has ever risen above mediocrity whose physical condition restricted him to such limited period of work as one hour out of every three. "It is a noteworthy fact," says a writer in Science, "that with the world's leaders in industry, in finance, in professional life, the duration of the daily task is wholly secondary to its accomplishment. They are limited by no eight hour, ten hour or twelve hour considerations. This indicates why such men become leaders. Laborers may learn a valuable lesson from this fact.

The greedy employer who saps the energies of those who are the medium by which he gains his wealth is to be condemned no more than is the 'shiek' whose only guiding principles are a minimum of effort and a maximum wage. Moreover, it is trite to say that the obligation rests upon the laborer that rests upon all men, so to use his free hours as to benefit himself, his family and society."

It is the belief of most physicians that few persons are ever injured by hard work alone, either mental or physical.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:

"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

We have two nice churches here and I don't think there has been more than two or three sermons preached in the last three months.

We have been informed that there are two Republican candidates for Magistrate in this district—one from Narrows and one from Dundee. It is thought that Joe Smith, of this place, will make the race on the Democratic ticket, and Ointon certainly needs a Magistrate.
